

Secure Your Business

CIS – Certification &
Information Security Services GmbH

Period of validity and extension criteria of CIS-Certificates

Information Security Manager

Period of validity: 3 years

Extension criteria: Experience (e.g. confirmation issued by the employer, interim diploma or self-declaration), three years' workplace experience in the field of Information Security Management and participation of the CIS training „CIS-Refreshing training for Information Security Manager and Information Security Auditor“(minimum once in 3 years).

Information Security Auditor:

Period of validity: 3 years

Extension criteria: Experience (e.g. confirmation issued by the employer, interim diploma or self-declaration), three years' workplace experience in the field of Information Security and participation of the CIS training „CIS-Refreshing training for Information Security Manager and Information Security Auditor“(minimum once in 3 years). For evidencing practice, it will be necessary to evidence at least four complete system audits relating to Information Security Management, including at least 20 audit days (incl. pre-processing and post-processing). It must be possible to derive information on the company/area under audit, audit date, (number of) audit days, type of audit and standards and regulations from the auditor's own records.